

Hitler, Obama, and the Press: Newspapers, Radio, Television/Internet

What a person can find if you have time to look. I thought this would be an excellent title for current trends in the arena of today's news; the prosperous independent's in the news media (radio, print, and video) and the starving lapdogs of Obama... I find that history often repeats itself and has once again, and sadly enough will continue to do so. The news media don't realize what is about to take place because of their misplaced loyalties. These excerpts are taken out of the Time Life book called "The New Order".

"Propaganda," wrote Joseph Goebbels "has absolutely nothing to do with the truth."

Paul Joseph Goebbels became the Propaganda Minister for Hitler and the Third Reich. He was considered a gifted student. He excelled in Latin and Religion and had a doctorate in German Literature from Heidelberg University. To encapsulate a man's life, is not what the point is about this man, it is to point out that, some of the finest college trained minds in Germany were indeed corrupted by their own search for power and fame. That they would do and say anything to keep that power; lying was a way of life and half truth's were considered expedient to attain their goal of complete power over people, a nation, and if they had their way world domination. Truth was an inconvenience. An "Inconvenient Truth", if you will.

*Goebbels discovered to his delight that he had a special gift for public speaking. When he was "a preacher, an apostle, a crier of battle," he wrote, "the soul of German worker is in my hands, and I can feel it is as soft as wax." No propaganda was "too crude, too low, too brutal," Goebbels announced, as long as it was successful in getting attention or winning converts. "The people want to be bamboozled."

* Maxim = tell a lie and it sticks

He was promoted in March 1933 to the new position of minister of popular enlightenment and propaganda; which gave him sweeping powers over the news that was to be disseminated. Eventually this worked into a 60,000 words per day on the heaven sent savior (Hitler) and the ultimate good of the Nazi Party.

He also took control of the radio and movie industry and watched and listened to everything produced to make sure it measured up to Party standards in everyday life. To be a person of value you must expound the party way of life and subscribe to its principles. If you didn't, those who would dare challenge Party values often found themselves arrested and sent to concentration camps.

*The editors were held responsible for everything published; the writer and editor would often find themselves on the same bus to concentration camps, for any criticism of der Fuhrer or certain party members. Nazi ownership and the censorship of others made the German press less readable and less appealing to its audience. Goebbels had envisioned the medium as an orchestra in which each instrument played the same melody---the party line---but with a different tone expression. Instead the system resulted in parrot like papers so dull and uniform that they lost one million readers in

Fast forward 2009, the new president and his chosen cabinet members come into power on Jan 20, the news is passed out to news sources (papers, radio, and cable news) all disseminated through David Axelrod and Rohm Emmanuel. What has happened? Newspapers are going bankrupt, seeking bailouts from the government. Cable news networks that worship Obama, their ratings are tanking, people are tired of hearing that stilted speech from the gifted liar, many people have praised the way he speaks.

(Personally if that is an orator we need you need to go back and listen to Billy Graham, Ronald Regan) Any radio program with the socialist/fascist/ communist mantra coming from the White House doesn't even have any ratings.

The Nazi regime had promoted a common enemy: the Jewish people, communists and anyone who did not have Aryan purity, as the way the New Order would change the world and promote peace and safety for the German people. Once Hitler got a toehold on the government and unrestricted power, he and his henchmen weren't about to let it slip away. So many new bureaucracies were formed, and czars were appointed to run them. Thousands of new rules and regulations were passed, eventually controlling every action of everyday life. (Sound familiar? Obama /Reid/ Pelosi/ care anyone?)

Back to 2009. What has happened? Who is the enemy of the Obama administration? Right wing people who wish to protect the U.S. Constitution, Christians, even America's Constitution, anyone who believes in this great Nation. The Democratic Party now has a toehold on the American people, in my estimation they will not let go unless the ground swell now starting just gets larger and more vocal and will not quit till this 'Obamination' is removed from the White House.

The one cable news network that doesn't spew the party line coming from the White House administrators and radio talk show hosts who have a brain and think for themselves - these are made to be the common enemies of the state. Those of us, who wish to remain free, have been listed as enemies of the state.

Well it looks like in this election some of you were bamboozled - to say the least. Hope and change was also the cry of the Nazi party. That's the reason I am recalling this part of history. You must see the parallels.

So what is happening now? The regime in Washington D.C. is now dealing with press members and those who give opinions on the news. As I write this article embedded in the Obama political machine with a dream for the First Amendment is Mark Lloyd, and as Obama's "Diversity Czar" at the Federal Communications Commission, (FCC) he plans to wield immense power over the way Americans can communicate.

In his vision, a day will come when talk radio will be replaced with government approved "progressive" local radio and by a smothering National People's Radio.

In his vision....Rush Limbaugh will be gone. Glenn Beck, gone. Lou Dobbs off the air. Sean Hannity silenced. Laura Ingram, history. The networks and satellite broadcasters that now carry those broadcasts will be broken up, and their affiliate stations "de-licensed," replaced by "local licensees---all in the name of diversity. **

He along with a host of others in the Obama administration is seeking to destroy the First Amendment.

The right to freedom of speech is what separates us from the rest of the world. There is no other Nation on the face of the earth like America and there will never be again - If we fail to stand and fight NOW for our Constitution, our Country and our Flag!

Sincerely, Gerald L. Heikes
